Redwood Empire Coin Club

Volume 65, Issue 6, Meeting #752. July 10, 2013

Next Meeting: August 14, 2013

JULY FEAST

The Redwood Empire Meeting and Eating Club had its annual BBQ dinner meeting, and it was great. We had at least 62 hungry people show up, and there was plenty for all. Many thanks to the gang at G&G Market for the delicious barbeque, and to all the members who brought side dishes and desserts. There was plenty for everybody, and just about all of it was gobbled up.

The topic for the August meeting will be: SHOW AND TELL. This is always one of our most popular meetings, so we anticipate a lot of interesting talks. Bring a numismatic item, give a short talk, and receive 4 free raffle tickets.

The club sends its best wishes for Willie Q to feel better soon and hopefully be able to join us at the next meeting.

Merle gave a nice talk about an encased Peace Dollar he recently acquired, and the history of the particular piece.

Joe McC mentioned that dealer Jack Beymer recently had 2 break-ins at his new shop location. For the first one, someone grabbed a rock from the nearby landscaping and broke a window. The shop has 24 hour cameras, and once you walk 8 feet in you are in being filmed. Three people went into the shop, grabbed a bucket of foreign coins sitting on the floor, and left. Within hours the police were catching these three people with the bucket of coins in their hot hands. Four days later, two more people broke in- using the same rock to break the window. They also went in the store, grabbed the same bucket of foreign coins and left. These two were also arrested, with the same bucket in hand, within a few days. At this point the landscaping rocks have been removed from in front of Jack's shop. It cost more to replace the glass than the bucket of foreign coins was worth. Someone suggested just leaving the bucket outside the door..... :-))

Joel M attended the ANA summer seminar in Colorado Springs recently. He gave a glowing report on how fantastic the sessions were. The staff were very friendly, knowledgeable, and eager to help. He feels it was an incredibly good experience and worth doing yearly. There were extracurricular activities as well, like a trip up nearby Pikes Peak, and evening drinking sessions. It is highly recommended for any collector, particular to become more advanced in grading, counterfeit detection, knowledgeable on various series, etc.

Bill Green joined our meeting to talk about the upcoming coin show he is running here in Santa Rosa. It will be September 20-21 at the Flamingo Hotel, where our show had once been. His initial show experience was spending 8 years helping the Diablo Valley Coin Club run its shows. He got the opportunity to purchase rights to run the NorCal Coin Shows from John McIntosh, and now runs two of them in Concord and Sunnyvale each year, with one now in Santa Rosa.

Part of the impetus for these is to start a college fund for a 'ill one he is obtaining guardianship for. That is where the proceeds of the shows will go. The entry fee for the show will be $2, with a $1 coupon available. He mentioned several of the dealers lined up for the show.

KIDS CORNER

Yes there will be a Kids Corner at 6 o'clock for the August meeting. Rich W will have just gotten back from Canada, so who knows what he may talk about.....

Leftover Space

With a whole page of space and no more news from this meeting, here is a little photo quiz for you. Can you identify the English monarchs on these coins from my collection? Hint- they are in chronological order.
